Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Paige Taylor Stolsmark, daughter of Rolland and Rene Stolsmark, will graduate from West Central High School in Hartford, South Dakota, on May 22, 2010, amidst the fanfare and celebration of family and friends; and,

Whereas, Paige's graduation is a fitting and proper culmination of many years of hard work and dedication both inside and outside the classroom; and,

Whereas, Paige's achievements are an inspiration to all young people in South Dakota who recognize learning is not a product but a process which stays with us during our lives; and,

Whereas, Paige's love of family and friends is an inspiration to everyone in her life, and her kindness and compassion toward others are qualities we all admire; and,

Whereas, South Dakota's young people are our state's best investment in the future and our greatest hope for prosperity, and Paige's commitment to attend South Dakota State University is a reflection of her love and respect for the values of South Dakotans; and,

Whereas, Paige's love of God, friendly nature, and mature intuition are the foundation for a future filled with joy and success:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 22, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I personally join Paige's proud parents, relatives, many friends, and classmates in recognizing Paige's accomplishments of the past and her promise for the future.

PAIGE TAYLOR STOLSMARK DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M Michael Rounds

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Teresa J Gray, Deputy

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State